

LICENSING EXECUTIVES SOCIETY
BRITAIN AND IRELAND

LES (Scotland) Burns Supper

“A Knight to Die For”
Scottish IP in the 21st Century

2nd February 2010

6pm for 6.30 until at least 10pm – or a bit later!

At 29, Royal Exchange Square, Glasgow, G1 3AJ (a 2 min walk from Queens Street Station)

Speakers and Entertainment

LES (Scotland) are delighted to announce the following speakers and entertainment at the Burns Supper:

- Professor Hector MacQueen, Professor of Private Law and Co-Director SCRIPT/AHRC Centre University of Edinburgh, and Commissioner of the Scottish Law Commission, will give an entertaining of review of Scottish laws on Privacy in his talk "Ae fond kiss - a private matter?"
- Hector will be followed by a rendition of “Ae fond kiss” by Dr Rena Gertz, University of Glasgow, with accompanist Kenneth Graham
- David Ogilvie, Managing Director, Lochcarron Scotland, will offer his opinion on “IP in tartan – is it worth it, after all Burns never wore the stuff!”
- Roderick Macpherson, Messenger-at-arms, will speak on "Pye-coated guardians of escutcheons - For a' that, and a' that".
- We will also have our usual interactive challenge – and this time on heraldry. (You'll get the knight reference now!!). Can you devise a new heraldic device for a significant Scot? Just bring your coloured pencils and imagination!